Internet Explorer Security Settings for Windows 2003 to enable Digital Signatures
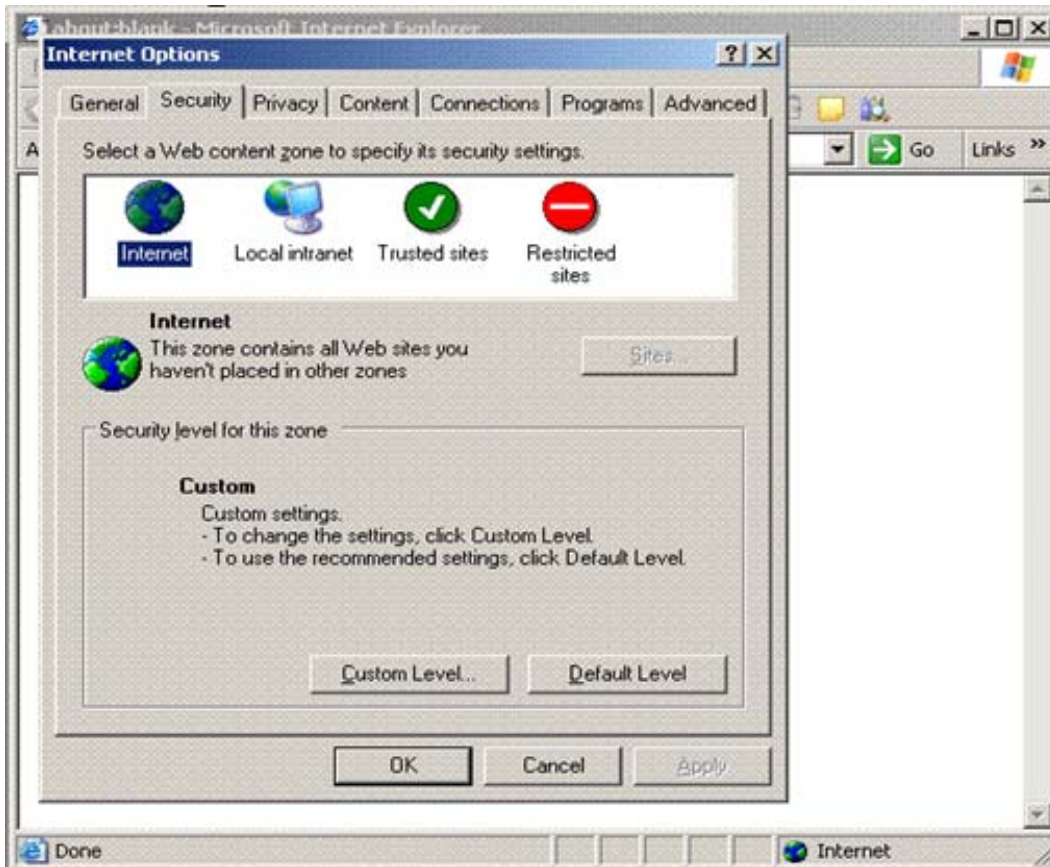

For internet browser settings, to enable digital signature, go to menu bar and click the option Tools, it will display different menu options, have been shown below. From the menu option Internet Options will be selected.

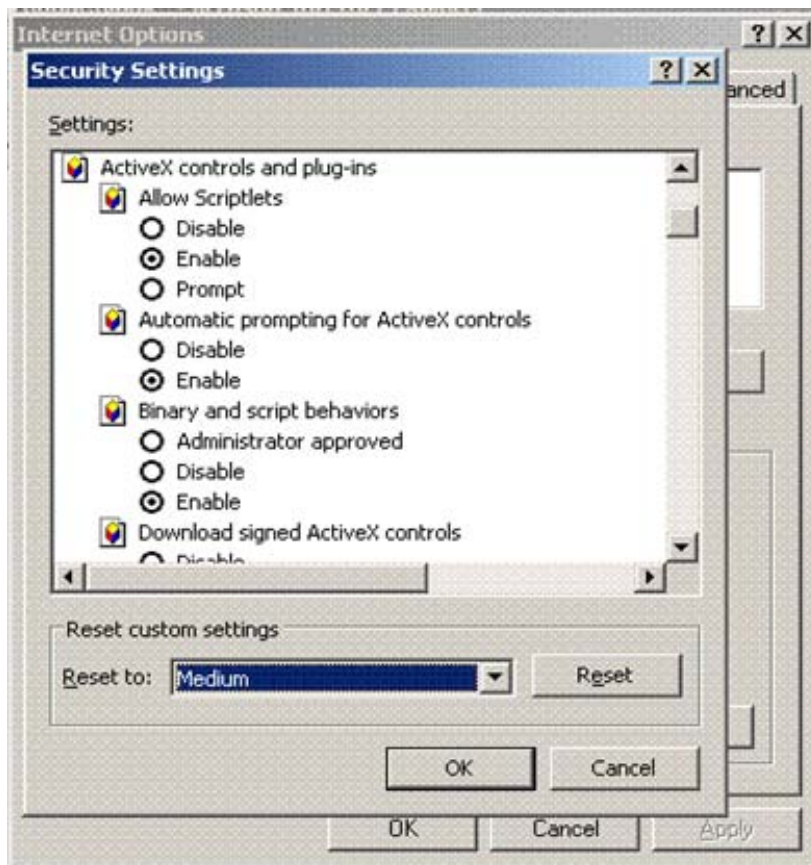

When the internet options will be selected it will open another window named as Internet Options, which is displayed below, to fix the browser settings as per requirement. In the following screen in the internet options window multiple tabs are displayed. From this Security tab will be selected.

When the Security tab marked by red colour, will be selected it will display the following screen from which Custom Level Button is to be clicked.

When custom level button, which is red marked, will be clicked it will open another window as Security Settings, which is displayed below. In the security settings window lot of options will be displayed, some of which are to be set.

Set The following Settings If you have windows 2003 Operating System:
Automatic Prompting for ActiveX Controls -> Disable
Binary and script behaviours -> Enable Download Signed ActiveX Controls -> Enable
Download UnSigned ActiveX Controls -> Disable
Initialize and Script ActiveX controls not marked as safe -> Enable Run ActiveX Controls and Plugins -> Enable
Script Activex controls marked safe for scripting -> Enable

Do not save encrypted pages to disk ->Unchecked